New beginnings in the New Year: "Love over ego"

Join our coordinated launch on February 3rd, 2019.see website below

<http://journey.newchurch.org/programs/love-over-ego/>

Being confident does not mean being cocky. Being humble does not mean being weak, or full of shame. True confidence and humility come from a place of knowing your worth, feeling grateful, and wanting to be useful.

Love Over Ego follows the biblical story of Daniel from his early days as a child captive in Babylon, to becoming one of the most respected leaders of the nation. Throughout each chapter, we witness the clash between the ego of the Babylonian rulers and the humble confidence of Daniel and his friends. The story offers a rich narrative for exploring questions such as: What is the difference between arrogance and genuine confidence? What is our true identity?

*As Daniel and his friends boldly face the powerful Babylonian rulers, we glimpse ways that vanity, manipulation and desire to control never hold up to the grounding power of confidence, love and true self-worth.

*These themes are as relevant today as they were thousands of years ago. In times like these, we as members of the human race can learn to rise above petty issues, put aside differences and simply help one another, remembering our shared humanity.

*For times when we find ourselves getting lost again in a self-focused mindset, Love Over Ego challenges us to remember what matters most. Like Daniel who stands amid lions, and his friends stand in the middle of fire, we also have the option to stand true to our values even in hard times. We invite you to join us in this program, as we practice letting genuine love take priority in our lives.

*This is an opportunity to access your higher nature, even in challenging times. You can start your own exploration at any time, with a 5 week email program, with readings, insights, and opportunities for reflection. Or start your own small group in your church or community, using the Love Over Ego workbook and related resources. Or join our coordinated launches on September 30th, 2018 or February 3rd, 2019.

Each of the five weeks explores a communication task drawn from the parable:

Week 1: True Identity Choosing to respond from our higher nature, rather than from ego.

Week 2: Intention Over Expectation Coming to a situation with a desire to love and serve, rather than expecting to be served.

Week 3: Confidence Over Arrogance Staying centred and present, even in highly charged situations.

Week 4: Humility Over Shame Accepting that we are imperfect, and learning from our mistakes.

Week 5: Contentment Over Materialism Appreciating this moment, instead of constantly seeking "more."

Week 6: Love Wins (Wrap-up) Navigating hard times with prayer, and belief that God's love is the most powerful force.

The Word in the letter is most Holy as it is the containant of the inner meanings. In Heaven the literal sense disappears and together with it that historical sense which has served as an objective form for the heavenly ideas AC 1866 Ideas themselves appear in the spiritual world in visible form and are pictured as images ...beautiful things beyond number together with delicious and delightful things of an affecting nature AC 1869.....when it is read by a little boy or girl it becomes more beautiful and delightful by degrees as it ascends and at last it is presented to the Lord as the image of a human being .....a likeness of Himself.
